Global Ulysses Dublin Keynote—Marina Carr, “Penelope”

Ms. Carr describes her essay as “a riff between Homer and Joyce on the nature of Penelope. Homer depicts her as a fainting catatonic nun and Joyce has her as a raving neurotic erotic. Somewhere beyond their fantasies, the mythology of Penelope and Molly Bloom maybe resides.”

At 6:00 pm

Dr. Julian Breandán Dean to launch The Book about Everything.

About The Book about Everything (Head of Zeus, 2022)

To celebrate the centenary of the publication of Ulysses, the most important literary work of the 20th century, eighteen artists, writers and thinkers were invited to respond to an episode each of the great modernist text.

Each essayist is an expert in one of the subjects treated in the novel, but what brings them together is a common love of Ulysses.
